MESSAGE FROM THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Dear Families and Friends,

Meet Mary.

Her two great passions are horses and creating art. Cerebral Palsy, a neurological disorder that tightens Mary's muscles and affects movement, does not deter her from meeting her goals when it comes to the animals she loves and making the artwork that brings them to life.

For over 10 years now, Mary has participated in Living Resources' Carriage House Arts Center Program in Albany. With the guidance of fine arts instructors, Mary creates award-winning pieces of art, incorporating elegance and movement. Her "disability" only makes her more determined to create exactly what she envisions in her mind and her work becomes her strong, resounding voice.

One of Mary's dreams is to someday own a thoroughbred and to be photographed in the Winner's Circle at the Saratoga Track. She works toward this goal by selling limited edition prints of her most popular paintings. Her mom nervously laughs when talking about Mary being a horse owner – not because she's afraid that Mary will fail but rather that Mary will succeed!

Mary has dreams fueled by hope. Her family, art instructors, and friends in the community surround her with support, allowing Mary to reach her fullest potential.

Living Resources is a proud partner in Mary's circle and a partner in the lives of 1,300 other individuals challenged by disabilities.

Fredrick W. Erlich
Chief Executive Officer

Carriage House Arts Center artist,
Mary

Every one of the people served by our talented staff has their own aspirations and dreams; it is in large part due to the generosity of you, our friends and family, that Living Resources is able to help them in meeting life's challenges.

At the end of last year, we debuted our beautiful new website. It's easy to navigate and filled with great new features including a "Giving Opportunities" button on the home page to allow you to securely and easily make contributions online. For a limited time, with an online contribution of $30 or more, you'll receive one of our beautiful 2012 calendars featuring artwork by 12 Carriage House Arts Center artists, including one of Mary's horse paintings.

Also on the home page of our new site, click on "The Quiet Leader" to view a wonderful video that tells the story of Living Resources in the voices of our staff, the people we serve, their families, board members and community partners.

To see for yourself, please go to LivingResources.org or scan the QR code below with your smartphone. Your continued support helps to turn the dreams and aspirations of the people we serve into reality.

P.S. Be sure to look at the Save the Date section on the back of this newsletter for information about "3", an art show featuring Mary's work.

Fredrick W. Erlich

Friends and Family

“When I came to Living Resources, I was very impressed with the way they’ve engineered their business plan. They have allowed for growth, they have allowed for bringing many different services to the community, and they do it with great efficiency and they execute it with a great amount of compassion.”

LIVING RESOURCES — Friends and Family

Friends and housemates Frank, Noah and Jonathan and staff member Caralyn enjoy Living Resources 2011 Holiday Party, held at Mallozzi's in December.

Millie and Marcus get in the festive spirit at the Holiday Party.

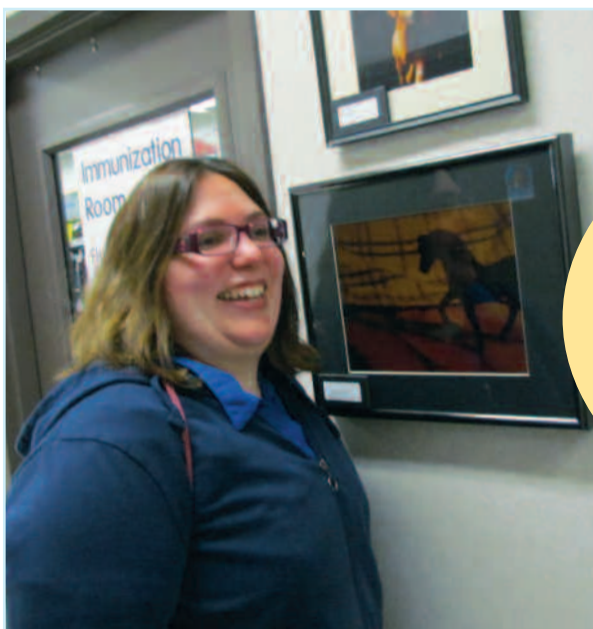

In October, a group from Near East and North African countries including Algeria, Jordan, Sudan and Kuwait, toured Living Resources with their host, Diane Conroy-LaCivita of the International Center of the Capital Region. CEO Fred Erlich and other staff gave them an overview of services and programs provided by the agency. The members of the delegation work in the field of disability rights and services, and their visit to Albany was part of a tour of locations throughout the US to learn about American programs for people with disabilities.

Guests sample the cuisine and enjoy the elegant decorations at the salon of Pasta Pane Rustic Italian Bistro at Living Resources' 21st Annual Culinary Cornucopia, held on October 30th at the Albany Marriott.

Jack Richardson, Tara Morgan and Molly Tarleton of Hannaford Supermarkets smile for a photo at the Cornucopia. Hannaford has been a Presenting Sponsor of the event for the past three years.

The Supported Employment Program helped Stephanie find a job that was just right for her at the Walgreens in Wilton, where her skills and confidence have grown and she's become a valued member of the team. Stephanie stands proudly beside two pieces of her artwork which her manager has put on display at the store.

GLOBAL FOUNDRIES SMARTBOARD GRANT

Living Resources was honored to be among the 14 inaugural grant recipients from Global Foundries in Malta, NY. The grant of $3,050, presented at an awards program on December 21st at the David R. Meager Community Center, goes to the Carriage House Arts Center's Malta site to purchase a Smart Board to teach students graphics. L-R: Steve Ennis, Living Resources Corporate Affairs Officer; David Meager, Steve Groseclose, Glenn Rockwood, Karen Heggen and Travis Bullard, all members of Global Foundries Town of Malta Foundation Board of Directors, and Scott Hamilton, Manager of the Living Resources Carriage House Arts Center.

After School Program participant Quinn (left) and his brother, William, enjoy the ASP's Annual Thanksgiving Dinner. Kids and their families gathered in the cafeteria at Living Resources headquarters for a traditional Thanksgiving meal with all the fixings, prepared by staff and volunteers.

Joe Morelli and Kathy Condon serve up a delicious feast at the ASP Thanksgiving party.

HONORARY AND MEMORIAL GIFTS TO LIVING RESOURCES

September 1, 2011 - January 21, 2012

The following donors have chosen to pay tribute to a loved one through a gift to Living Resources.
